Lifestyle farmhouses close to Delhi

Welcome to an Experience called
Greenwood Acres.

Life shouldn't be measured in square feet and square yards. It needs scale. It needs expanse. It needs freedom. There's a world beyond four walls waiting for a select few. It's called Greenwood Acres.

There's always a fine balance between living well and living with style. At Greenwood Acres, every resident gets the space to explore his or her own style sensibilities.

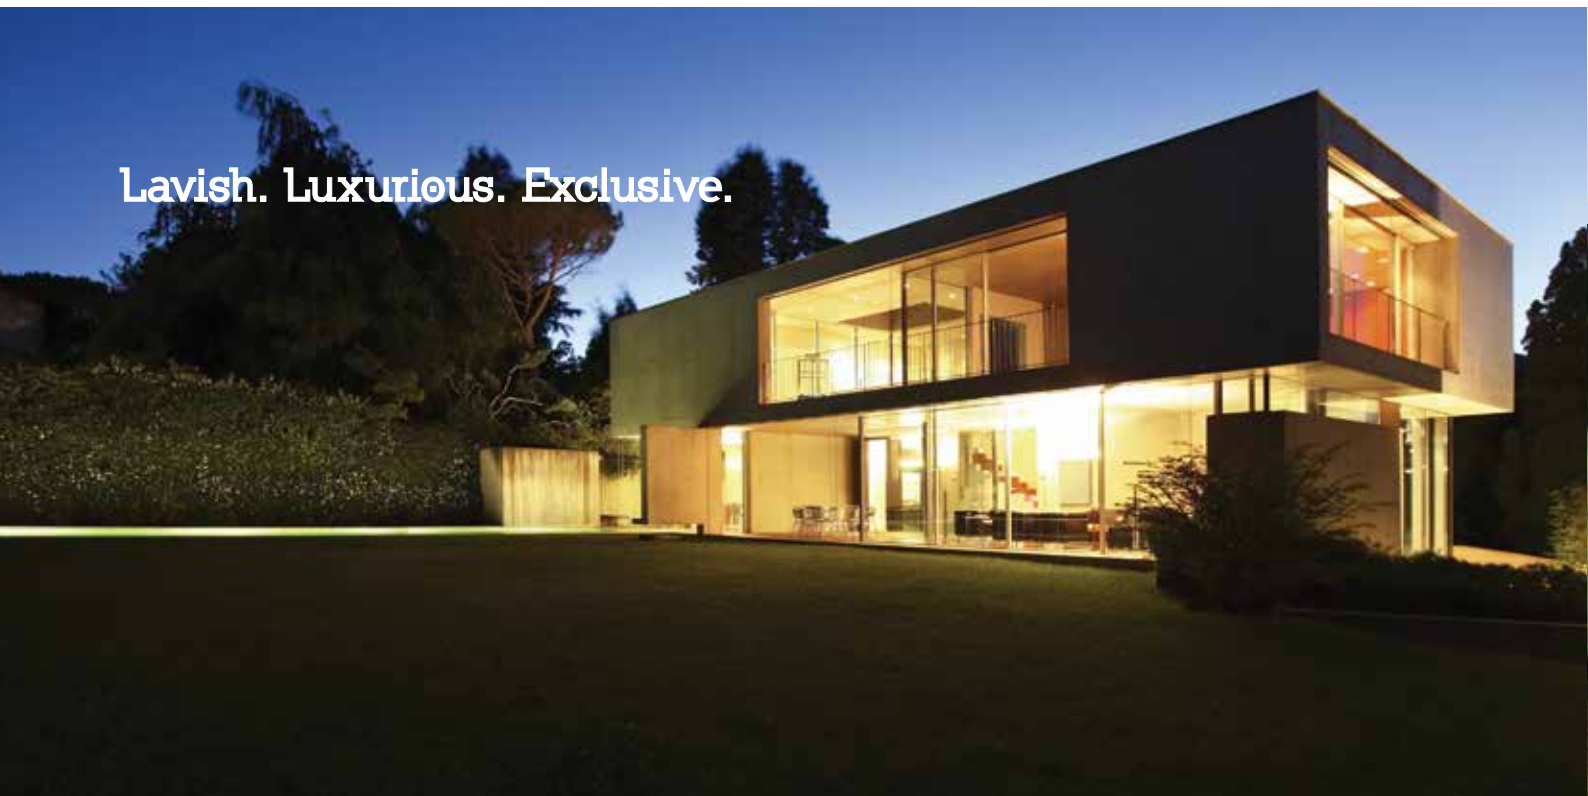

Where Life meets Lifestyle.

Greenwood Acres has been planned with attention to what an elevated lifestyle is all about. The privacy of large, open spaces, the assurance of security that a gated development provides, varied and family-oriented activities offered by a modern clubhouse located within the complex itself, and the modern infrastructure in place, all coming together to provide nothing but the best to residents.

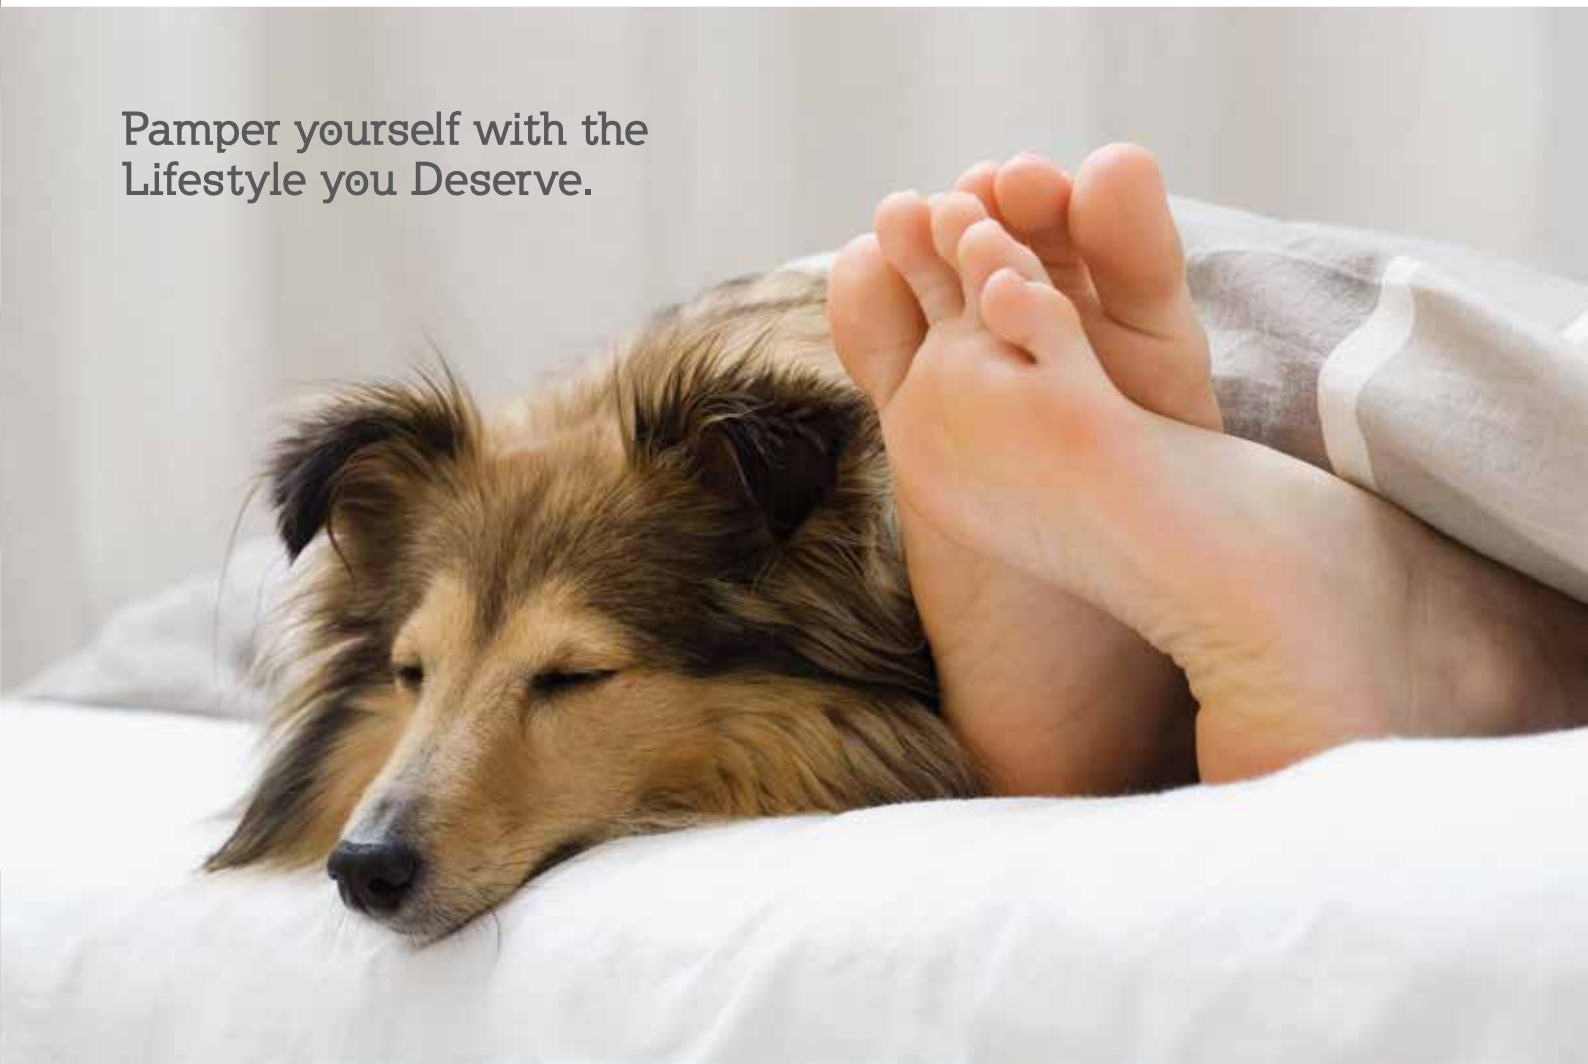

Greenwood Acres is specially developed pristine land, unlike other developments that are often too far from the good life, this is a gated farmhouse enclave with the potential to be a vibrant, thriving address.

Lavish. Luxurious. Exclusive.

Pamper yourself with the Lifestyle you Deserve.
